This rug is woven by women in the Atlas, the mountain region in the north of Morocco.

The beautiful colors that match so harmoniously are plant dyed.

The wool comes from the sheep that graze all over the slopes of the mountains.

Imagine that picture, what a beautiful origin this carpet has had!

Then it has been used, sometimes for several generations in a row, that is how strong these beautiful carpets are.

So some fringes may have worn off over the years, but that just adds more charm and character.

Wonderfully soft and warm, for sure a whole generation of enjoyment!
